

PRO-07-IBERÁ MARSHEs

Destination: Ibera Marshes | Posadas |

Duration: 4 Days

Description

The Iberá marshland was declared International Wetland (RAMSAR SITE 2002). Its one of the largest moist areas in the world. With a superfice of 1.3 million hectares, is the home of most important variety of fauna, a natural paradise unique in its type.

Departures

Every day.

Itinerary

Día 1: Transfer from Posadas city to Iberá Marshland and accommodation in the lodge.

Day 2: Wild fauna-watching tour on the Corrientes stream.

Day 3: Wild fauna-watching tour on the Miriñay stream.

Day 4: Breakfast at the lodge and return to Posadas.

Remarks:

Include accommodation in a double bed room with full board. Subject to availability. Departure from Posadas. Ask for oher transfers.