ECOLOGICAL TRIP

Destination: Iguazú

Description

From the Garganta del Diablo (Devil's Throat) train station, we offer this silent and quiet sailing experience on rafts, covering the different islands of the Upper Iguazu River.

Visitors shall be able to connect with the rich flora and fauna that distinguishes this riverside environment. Expert local people will help tourists to discover the secrets of the jungle beyond the runways.

This peaceful trip ends at the Tres Marias Port where visitors may return walking to the Waterfall Station, which is the starting point of traditional circuits.

Duration: 30 minutes aproximately.
